

A FAMILY AFFAIR

One sunny Thursday morning, Inspector Hudson left his bedroom, went downstairs and left the house. It was time to get to work. He was working on a murder case. The victim was 45-years-old Eric Horn. The prime suspect was Jay Horn, Eric's son, an 18-years-old boy with a criminal record. Jay hated his father, because he had left home when Jay was a baby. The problem was that Hudson couldn't prove Jay's guilt.

THE INSPECTOR CALLED THE TAXI TO GO TO HIS OFFICE.

IMMEDIATELY HE ENTERED, HE BEGAN TO WORK TO FIND MORE ABOUT JAY' S LIFE. DIGGING A LITTLE ABOUT HIS CRIMINAL RECORDS, HE DISCOVERED THAT HE HAD COMMITTED THEFTS AND LITTLE THINGS. MEANWHILE THE AUTOPSY RESULT ARRIVED AND HE DISCOVERED THAT THE CAUSE OF DEATH WAS AN ELECTRIC SHOCK THAT STUNTED HIS HEART INSTANTLY.

HUDSON THEN THOUGHT IMMEDIATELY THAT IT WAS AN ACCIDENT, NOT A MURDER, BUT THERE WERE DETECTED SIGNS OF SELF-DEFENSE AND BLOOD UNDER HIS NAILS.

THE DETECTIVE THOUGHT THAT IT WASN'T AN ACCIDENT AND LET THE TRAILS OF BLOOD ANALYZE TO FIND THE DNA. THEY HAD NO FEEDBACK UNFORTUNATELY.

HUDSON WANTED TO GO TO MAKE SOME QUESTIONS TO ERIC' S SON. HE WANTED TO GO WITH HIS COLLEAGUE SHERLOCK. HE HAD MADE THE ACADEMY WITH HUDSON; THEY HAD BEEN KNOWING EACH OTHER FOR MORE THAN 15 YEARS.

HUDSON AND SHERLOCK WANTED TO GO TO THE HOUSE OF JAY' S LOVER TO QUESTION JAY HORN, WHO LIVED WITH HER. THEY WENT IN THE AFTERNOON, RANG THE INTERCOM AND THE GIRL ANSWERED. SHE LOOKED INTIMIDATED BUT SHE AGREED TO WELCOME THEM. SHE THREATENED THEM POLITELY, OFFERED THEM SOMETHING TO DRINK AND TO EAT BUT THE DETECTIVES STOPPED THE WOMAN BECAUSE THEY DIDN' T HAVE TIME TO WASTE. THEY WANTED ONLY TO ASK SOME QUESTION TO THE VICTIM' S SON.

SHE SAID THAT JAY WASN'T AT HOME. THEY WONDERED WHY HE LEFT HIS PAPERS AT HOME, SO THEY STARTED TO THINK THAT THE WOMAN WANTED TO HIDE HIM, EVEN IF HE WAS AT HOME.

WHILE THEY APPROACHED THE CAR THEY SAW JAY BEHIND THE CURTAINS OF HIS BEDROOM. SO THEY DECIDED TO BROKE THE HOUSE. THEY WENT TO THE SECOND FLOOR, BUT JAY JUMPED OUT OF THE WINDOW. SHERLOCK THAT WAS WAITING FOR HIM OUTSIDE, CATCHED HIM IN THE GARDEN. THEY PUT HIM IN PRISON AND THEY QUESTIONED HIM. HE SAID THAT HIS MOTHER HATE HIS FATHER AND SHE HAD KILLED HIM. M.R.S. HORN WAS THE GUILTY!
